Adjunct Clinical Nursing Faculty: Fall Semester
General Med/Surg
Critical Care

NDC Division of Nursing is currently seeking Registered Nurses with experience in general medical/surgical and critical care to provide clinical instruction and on-site supervision of nursing students in the delivery of nursing care to an individual or group of individuals in clinical environments.

Adjunct clinical faculty, at the direction of course faculty and in collaboration with health care agency personnel, are responsible for planning, implementing and evaluating the student clinical experience consistent with the mission, philosophy and conceptual framework of the Notre Dame College Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program.

Required Qualifications:

Education, Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Completion of an approved registered nursing education program in a jurisdiction as defined in paragraph (P) of rule 4723-5-01 of the Administrative Code;
- A baccalaureate degree in nursing (BSN) required; master of science in nursing degree (MSN) preferred;
- Current, valid, unencumbered licensure as a registered nurse in Ohio;
- Ability to analyze, apply knowledge, plan, implement and evaluate student learning needs and patient care needs
- Ability to assess and anticipate student behavior and plan accordingly

Required Length and Type of Experience

- Experience for at least two years in the practice of nursing as a registered nurse.
- Demonstrated expertise or specialty certification in the area of clinical practice in which nursing students are supervised/instructed.

Required Licensure, Certification or Registry

- Current valid unencumbered licensure as a registered nurse in Ohio.
- Current BLS certification (American Heart Association Health Care Provider Course).

Preferred Qualifications:

- Previous teaching experience in a pre-licensure baccalaureate nursing program.
- Specialty certification in the area of clinical practice in which nursing students are supervised

To apply, please submit a résumé and cover letter to careers@ndc.edu. Please list the title of the position for which you are applying in your subject line of your e-mail.